Air & Space Forces grants new merchandise licenses

Staff report

Air Force Public Affairs Agency Intellectual Property Management

JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO, RANDOLPH, Texas — The Air & Space Forces Intellectual Property Management office has approved Classic Medallics Inc., Frontline Metal, LLC, My Custom Balls, LLC, Parker Enterprises, Sandra Ballesteros and Trophy Point Games, LLC as licensed vendors of Air Force and Space Force-branded merchandise.

These companies have joined the likes of nearly 300 approved licensees.

Classic Medallics Inc. will now offer a line of jewelry, awards and recognition products that feature the Air Force Symbol and word marks, the Space Force Delta and word marks, the Air Force Emblem and the Air Force Thunderbirds

Frontline Metal, LLC will now offer a line of commemorative placards and wall art that feature the Air Force Symbol and word marks, the Space Force Delta and word marks, the Air Force Emblem and the Air Force Thunderbirds.

My Custom Balls, LLC will now offer a line of custom baseball 3D and flat embroidery that feature the Air Force Symbol and word marks, the Space Force Delta and word marks, and the Air Force Thunderbirds.

Parker Enterprises will now offer a line of 3D wood plaques that feature the Air Force Symbol and word marks, the Space Force Delta and word marks, and the Air Force Emblem.

Sandra Ballesteros will now offer a line of dog tags, hats, hoodies and t-shirts that feature the Air Force Symbol and word marks, the Space Force Delta and word marks, and the Air Force Emblem.

Trophy Point Games, LLC will now offer the Air Force Academy Board Game that feature the Air Force Symbol and words marks.

The best way for consumers to support the Dept. of the Air Force when they're purchasing merchandise is to look for the “officially licensed” label on products and only buy from companies holding official licenses.
