Air & Space Forces extends merchandise licenses, access to brand

Staff report

Air Force Public Affairs Agency Intellectual Property Management

JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO, RANDOLPH, Texas — The Air & Space Forces Intellectual Property Management office has renewed the licenses of Eder Flags and The Glass Baron Inc. as licensed vendors of Air Force and Space Force-branded merchandise.

Eder Flags has been officially licensed by the Department of the Air Force since 2018 and offers flags that feature the U.S. Air Force Symbol, U.S. Air Force Emblem and U.S. Space Force Delta and word marks.

The Glass Baron Inc has been officially licensed by the Department of the Air Force since 2018 and offers headgear, drinkware, giftware, jewelry, and ornaments that feature the U.S. Air Force Symbol, U.S. Air Force Emblem and U.S. Space Force Delta and word marks.

The best way for consumers to support the Dept. of the Air Force when they're purchasing merchandise is to look for the “officially licensed” label on products and only buy from companies holding official licenses.
